

HISTORY

Historical milestones:

1906: The University of Indochina

1945: Vietnam National University

1956: The University of Hanoi

1993: Vietnam National University, Hanoi

At present, as a leading university in Vietnam, Vietnam National University, Hanoi (VNU) is a high quality, comprehensive, multi-disciplinary academic and research center of excellence based on international standards. VNU has seven Universities, five Schools, nine Research/Training Institutes and Centers, and 14 Service Units.

